2 of 2 review helpful I m in LOVE with this book By Erica F Every year I end up paying up to 100 for a boring catalog cake from the supermarket for my kids' birthdays. Something more exciting from a real bakery costs even more. Ridiculous. So I decided to look into doing something myself. I suck at baking or so I thought and so I needed recipes that were easy and yet yielded impressive results. For the ultimate in show stopping desserts look no further than these cakes that seem to defy gravity. While elements of the cake may seem like they're floating in thin air it's really just simple scaffolding plastic balloon sticks concealed within the cake and disguised with fondant and candy that creates the spellbinding illusion. These cakes are incredibly fun and beautiful and are sure to be the star attraction at your next celebration. About the Author: Jakki Friedman is a passionate and creative pastry chef who runs a baking business in Manchester, England. Over the last 2 years Jakki has been specializing in gravity cakes for a huge number of clients along with regular demonstrations for
